ERRORS FIGURE IN TWO TIGERS-BUILDERS GAMES

Ronnoke Takes Both Ends of Double-Header. Spratt Made Only Safety for His Team.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., August 5—Efird and Tolson were complete puzzles to the Builders in a double-header here to-day, and Roanoke took both games, winning the first, 2 to 6, and taking the second at 8 to 6 by scoring eight runs in the tenth inning. Mullin was in good form until the tenth, and then his defense weakened, four successive errors giving the visitors four runs. Mullin then eased up, and the visitors batted the ball hard.

Murphy held the Tigers to two hits in the first game, but they were bunched with a base on balls, and two bad throws by Glockson counted for two runs. Manager Spratt was the only local player to hit Tolson safely in the second game. Scores:
